The Colossal Bronze Statue of Victory which stands in the Park, at Lowell, before the tomb of the first soldiers that fell in the revolution, is a lasting another pillar, and on it I read ' Here- and beautiful tribute of art It is one in is love not that we loved God, but of the first objects sought by strangers visiting our sister city, which indeed many visit purposely to see this elegant object of high art. It was obtained from the King of Bavaria by Dr. J. C. Ayer, to whom his majesty was especial ly gracious in acknowledgment of what his remedies are reputed to have done for the suffering sick. It was donated by the Dector to the City of Lowell as a permanent and speaking emblem of the victories both of Science and Arms

The following is an extract from a description of Vineland, published in the New Yonk Tribune, by the well known Agriculturist, Solon Robinson.

All the farmers were of the "well to do" sort, and some of them, who have turned their attention to fruits and market gardening, have grown rich. The soil is loam, varying from sandy to clayey, and surface gently undulating, intersected with small streams and occasional wet meadows, in which deposits of peat or muck are stored, sufficient to fertilize the whole upland surface, after it has been exhausted of its natural fertility.
